DEDICATION

To

MISS LENA GREEVER

A teacher

Untiring in her efforts

Unselfish in her giving

Unbiased in her opinions.

A friend

Broad-minded, open-hearted, fair and just.

We dedicate the 1945 HICKORY LOG as an expression of our gratitude and respect.

FOREWORD

HERE is your 1945 HICKORY LOG. It contains an account of your activities, your teachers and your friends—all the fond memories of your school. Your pleasure in it is the aim of the LOG Staff.

CLASSES

AS A MATTER OF FACT . . .

As Shakespeare has said, "There is a history in all men's lives," so it is, especially in a graduating class of Hickory High.

Our first year in high school was spent at Greenpark, where we struggled thru' this year as "green freshmen." We had come into a new surrounding and were supposedly ladies and gentlemen. Our minor duty was running errands for P. W. whenever he yelled. You remember he was the "big boss."

At last ,we came to "dear ole Hickory High," one morning in September, 1941. We felt "greener" than ever this year because of the number of rooms and teachers. Our first week was a turmoil—yes—it took us that long to learn that Seniorita Shuford taught Spanish in Room 25 and Mrs. Gwin taught English in Room 6. But, after so long, we were satisfactorily adjusted and were promoted to the ninth grade.

Junior year seemed to be our busiest year. We took over the stand at the football games and sold magazines to raise money for the Junior-Senior. At last, the night, which all Juniors and Seniors look forward to, came. The gym was not decorated as elaborately as former years, but we had "oodles" of fun nevertheless. The theme for the Junior-Senior was "Swing Fever" and it surely "hit the nail on the head."

One minor change that occurred at the beginning of our Senior year was a lower percentage of boys. Because of the war, many had joined the armed forces. We were on the verge of becoming men and women of the world, rather than living the irresponsible life of a student. The moment we had been looking forward to came, as we received our diplomas.

The helpful influence which Hickory High has had upon us will long be remembered by us, the Senior Class of Nineteen hundred forty-four and forty-five. And to the faculty, we extend our deepest thanks for making our life at Hickory High, a pleasant and profitable one.

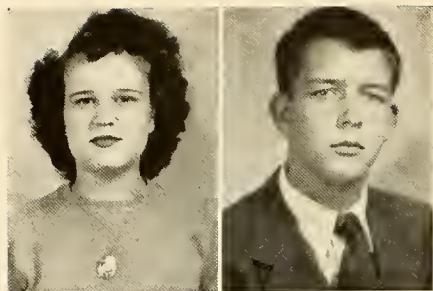

PAULINE SHIPMAN.

IT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU!

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

Come one! Come all! Step right up and buy your tickets now!

As we open this magnificent show we want to thank the owners, Bill Jackson, Jack Suther, Harold Bridgeman and Cecil Abree, for their great work in making such a grand show possible.

We have with us today some very famous and distinguished persons. Movie actresses, Dolly Jean Leonard and Viola Wallace, escorted by their "leading men," Charles Mitchell and Eldon Estep. Dolly Jean is soon appearing in that smash Broadway Comedy Hit, "Love's Affire," produced and directed by Tommy Blevins.

Painters of many fine pictures, artists Maynard Teague and Eva Mae Hunter are here. Then, we are glad to have with us Barbara Yount, generally known as "Our Bobbie," Senator from North Carolina, who is with Mildred Sigmon, a member of the House. And also those two Modern Airplane Designers, Avery Wilfong and Howard Wright. With them is Bill Deitz, Gem Expert.

And now on with the side shows! On my right you see one of the world's most famous line of chorus girls! Jean Koerner and her "Dazzling Beauties"! Ten gorgeous gals!... Edith Barger, Rachel Tuttle, Betty Boyd, Wilda Ellis, Hazel Seabock, Mary Jane Frye, Charlotte Holmes, Dorothy Kilby, Frances McGuire and Clara Palmer.

Before you on my left stands Billie Bebe Fulenwider. She has the longest, platinum blond hair of any girl... in this show! Billie Bebe has not cut her hair since she was at Hickory High. She and her dancing partner, Alice Hunsucker, will perform the ancient "Hula" tribal dance. Also you will see inside, the world's heaviest lady, Sarah Virginia Witherspoon, who has gained some weight since her High School days. You will see too, Jimmy Mangum, the lightweight boxing champion. (My, how he, too, has changed since H. H. S.!)

Come right this way and see Tommy Greene, the greatest fire-eater in the world! Eating two flaming torches at a time! At the same time see Gene Thomason, the sword swallower of the universe! He is really terrific!

Buy your tickets here for the "Big Top." Our big tent was designed and built by C. G. Mason and Grady Miller. The attractive programs were printed by John Cansler.

Now, our Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Jason Brown, will describe some of the acts that are going on in the "Big Top." The bands are playing Marches, while the "Dare-devils of the Air" are performing on the flying trapeze. Those well-known teams: J. V. McKinney and Bonnie Sue Jarvis; Nolan Yount and Joy Crapps; Joe Evans and Dorothy Killian; Jack Bowman and Elizabeth Cannon. They have performed the world over; in Paris they performed for that famous French Lady, Mlle. Marie Besi Tilley, once a French student at H. H. S. She is now the ex-wife of a French Nobleman.

In the spotlight now are the man-eating lions and tigers! And their tamers, Hampton Shuford and J. T. Holland, and that famous Lady "Tameress," Doris Busby! The ferocious lions were captured in Africa by those two great pals of many happy hunting days together, Bruce Templeton and James Phillips.

As we look around the stands we see several secretaries and their bosses; namely, Thomas Huffman, manager of "McGoosle's" Store, with his two secretaries... Doris E. Miller and O'Lema Cody. Earl Goodman of Goodman Tire Company, with his secretary Frankie Killian. Ralph Hartley, Hoyt Bolick and James Landis owners of "Everlasting Furniture Company, Inc." Managed by Mary Louise King and Betty Jo Eckard, with Frances Hartzoge, Elsie Mae Key, and Betty Hilton as secretaries. We also see Martha Gray and Mildred Bedington, managers of Spainhour's. It's a holiday for all the local tradespeople.

And now the "Grand Parade."...

Cast your eyes this way, Ladies and Gents, for one of the greatest events of the whole circus. The courageous Augusta Garth riding a pink elephant, the only one in captivity, led by Bill Helton, followed by the other performers on their elephants, Carol Drum riding "ENY," led by Harold Hewat, Peggy Hallman riding "MEENY," led by Walter Hipp, Dorothy Collins riding "MINY," led by Richard Cole, and Jane Cannon riding "MOE," led by John Robert Flowers.

And now we bring you a special announcement, Miss Mildred Newton has just been elected Mayor of Hickory! Congratulations to you, Mildred.

Next come the horseback riders on white stallions, led by John Henry Ford and Betty Lou Hefner, followed by Jane Stratton and Don Kaylor, Martha Starnes and Herman Robinson, Betty Jean Clemmer and Bob Beard, Margaret Ann Walton and Bryan Wilfong. The horses are bred by Fred Deaton, Wade Phillips, Malcolm Rink and Calvin Hewitt. Some of the finest horses in America are bred on their farm. One of the famous racing horses bred by them is "Lighting," owned by Harrill Deitz.

We see on the sidelines now Marion Roberts, surgeon, and with her are nurses Marie Alexander, Nancy Moss, Evelyn Hamilton, Nora Mask, Hilda Robbins, Minna Harrison, and Doris Teague. And also Margie Penland, Dentist, and her assistant, Margie Warren. Fred Ritter, one of the fifteen men in the world who understands the Einstein Theory, is here too.

Now the clowns, here they come prancing in! I'm sure you will know most of these clowns, Carroll Rhyne, Alvin Kepley, Wilbert Seabock, Royce Robeson, Wallace Herndon, and Weyburn Seabock. Behind the clowns come the "Girl-Jugglers," Thelma Eckard, Louella Robinson, Helen Sigmon, Lillian Seabock, and Evelyn Robertson. While they are performing I'll name over some more of the well-known persons here at the ring-side: Linda Miller, Broadway play actress, and Betty Marie Yoder, that well-known "Blackface" actress; and also present are some of the country's outstanding athletes, Carl Burns and Guy Wilson, nationally known football players; Clarence Fisher and Billy Whisnant, baseball stars; Mary Barker, Helen Isenhour and Guinell Freeman, basketball stars. Martha Burns, now editor of the Hickory Herald Tribune.

The advertising managers of the Circus are Ray Cline, Frank Annas, Stanley Ammons, and Kenneth Bowman. They have done a fine job too.

We have with us today three nationally known bands: Enoch Horn's, Glenn Henkel's and Lewis Lyon's. Martha Digh and Violet Troutman are singers for Glen's band. Evelyn Fox and Carolyn Drum are star singers with Enoch Horn's band. Here are a few more members of Enoch's band you should know, Kathryn Gabbard, Maxine Bollinger, and Mozelle Carswell are Drum Majorettes; Ruth Camp and Marion Burns playing the Clarinettes, and Mary Arney and Millie Jean Starnes, Trumpet Players.

And as we look on the other side of the tent where Lewis' band is we see Pauline Shipman and Dorothy Miller as his singers; Marguerite Cline and Irene Clontz playing the flutes; Betty Jo Culpepper and Jane Dellinger, trombone players; Ruby Duncan, Lorraine Fretz, and Frances Hallman playing the violins.

And now... J. L. Setzer, Bob Roseman, Hal Huffman, and Ralph Hollar are going to be shot out of cannons by those lovely ladies, Helen Mozeley, Thesta Mae Frye, Willadean Hunt, and Peggy Wilson. They will sail through the air and into a net one thousand feet away! There they go! With a sigh of relief from everyone after they land safely. Eyes are cast above where the "Tight-Rope" walkers are giving a grand performance led by John Tate and "Icky" Long in their world-famous act; other tight-rope walkers are, Agnes Hollar, Jack Shook, Audrey Owens, Raldo Sharpe, Marjorie Owens, Wanda Woodie, Marguerite Leonard and Billy Sigmon. They are giving such a good performance that the patrons are about to take the top of the tent off! But let's see if we can see anyone else of interest; yes, here are Betty Abbott, Joyce Austin, Arybell Jones, Ruby Peeler, and Mimi Jean Correll, all of the National Art Museum.

In the front ring the seals are balancing balls on their noses, which shows spectacular training on the part of their trainers; Morris McGuire, Charles Roseman, John Ray Poovey, Alvin Starr, and Bill Stephens. While in their circus life the seals had the pleasure of being taken care of by Mary Louise Raby, Doris J. Propst, Helen Roseman, Marjorie Walls, and Peggy Paige.

And now those startling acrobats, Zelma Yount, Pansy Zimmerman, Allie Mae Young, Emma Kate Yount, and Betty Newton. After they have finished their act we will have some real dancing, starring Meriam Self, Margaret Seitz, Mary Frances Shell, Joyce Madaris, Mary Evelyn McRee, Doris L. Miller, Edna Mae Walker, Marjorie Turner, and Virginia Slayton.

Before the next act begins I must tell you that Mary Gwyn Saine, Mary Gaither Whitener and Betty Jo Yoder are three of the world's greatest philosophers.

And now last, but not least, we have the "Bear Wrestlers." These bears were captured by Bill Warren and Bill Sherrill. Here come the "wrestlers," Clyde Smith and Gwyn Sigmon.

(The foregoing circus will be produced and the people mentioned will attend when Rheba Starr discovers whether or not "Orbit" chewing gum loses its flavor on the bed post over night.)

TO THEM . . WHAT'S LEFT BEHIND

Tommy Blevins leaves his job as football manager to anyone who thinks he can handle it. To Betty Sue Bumgarner goes Betty Abbot's love for selling war bonds. Naomi Bolick, since she doesn't have any, is going to get Zelma Yount's red hair. "Copher" Miller leaves his nickname to his brother, Freddy. Rachel Tuttle leaves her luck in love to Juanita Warren, although she doesn't seem to need it. Richard Cole gives his pipe to just any ol' body. Charles Roseman leaves his pretty light complexion to Claude Bowman. Willbert and Weyburn Seabock bequeath their similar looks to each other to Reid and Ray Lafone. Hampton Shuford regretfully wills his ability to make love to all the girls to Vance Bright. To Herbert Ketcham goes Cuy Wilson's slim physique. Ralph Hartley and Bill Warren leave their great love for airplanes to Hayes Terrel. Frances Hartzoge's dependability is left to Jeanne Hutton. Charlotte Holmes' pretty hair-do goes to Mary Katherine Starnes. Minna Harrison's desire to pop her chewing gum in class goes to any chewing gum lover. Peggy Hallman leaves her popularity with the boys to Billie Jones. Dwight Adkins gets O'Lema Cody's big brown eyes. Jack Suther leaves his corny laugh to Raymond Lane. Maynard Teague's artistic ability is left to Edith Blackwell. Icky Long leaves a little bit of her "shortage" to Barbara Crouch. Helen Isenhour leaves her great love for basketball to Esther Zerden. Shag Hewat's nervousness when speaking before a crowd is left to Mildred Shepherd. Evelyn Fox leaves her neatness to Dorothy Hefner. Jane Cannon gives her place as a darn good cheerleader to Doris Haskins. Tommy Green leaves his "peroxide" to Phil Patton. Clen Henkle leaves his bow ties to Bobby Wood. Bobby Beard's good school spirit goes to Ann Whitener. We've just decided to let Jean Frans and Betty Harley, "Shorty" to most of us, fight over Guinell Freeman's quiet ways. Harrill Deitz bequeaths his freckles to Benny Fox. Dolly Jean Leonard leaves her new wisdom tooth to Ann Brooks. Arybell Jones wants to leave her old age to Roberta Cooke. Bruce Templeton leaves his master mind to William Little. Larry Rowe receives C. C. Mason's divine love for pestering the girls. Virginia Slayton's ability to laugh at anything goes to Betty Lingle. Willie Ruth Abce can have Dorothy Kilby's place in Shorthand class, but we're warning you, don't let Miss Allran see you combing your hair! John Robert Flowers' "halo" goes to Joel Hyder.

If Pat Sigmon can find it, he may have Jack Kaylor's new parking place, that is, when K-9 isn't on the loose. "Speck" Bridgman sweetly hands over his "innocent look" to Mike Foster. Malcolm Rink wills his gracefulness to Robert Mozeley. With Eva Mae Hunter's permission, Nell Cox may have her sewing-box. Augusta Carth is gonna' give Buddy Furlong her sterling silver hair clasp so he can pin back his pretty red curls. Pauline Abernathy is to be honored with the golden voice of Violet Troutman. Martha Digh bequeaths her rosy cheeks to Martha Jane Self.

Betty Jean Ramsey is the lucky one to get Billie Bebe Fulenwider's white sweater, red shirt, and white boots. Alvin Keypley's appetite, and it seems to be a big one from the way he tears off to the Lunch Room every day, is left to Cecil Edge. Kenneth Bowman's method of blushing all the time is bestowed upon Ned Reese. Billy Puett leaves his perfect manners to Jimmy Bumgarner. Mary Louise King confers her charming personality to Mary Jo Whisnant. Joyce Austin gives Acirwantia Propst her sweet smile, with the sweetest of smiles.

Bill Jackson bequeaths his ability to throw passes to Bobby Lail. Betty Hilton wills her shyness and quietness to Ruby Adams. Jimmy Manguam leaves his slick, smooth hair to Paul Bigsby. Martha Burns' long bicycle ride to school is left to Margaret Anderson. To Ruby Lee Bailey is left Betty Jo Culpepper's sweet ways. Martha Jean Pope wills her position as Chemistry "Shark" to Lucille Bentley. The love of Wiladean Hunt for the art of public speaking is left to Mildred Berry. Marguerite Leonard wills her ability to stay quiet in study hall to Mary Alice Sigmon. Avery and Bryan Wilfong leave their Model A to anyone who can get it out of the garage. Bill Helton leaves his cheerful smile to Henry Abernathy. J. L. Setzer leaves his bright shirts to Cilbert Mayfield. Marie Alexander wills her bashfulness to Janie Bolch. Carl Burns leaves his ability to converse freely to Eugene Alexander. Walter Hipp wills his love for Shakespeare to J. C. Hill. Marion Roberts leaves her excess weight to Evelyn Petree. Billy Whisnant bequeaths his loud voice to Floyde Barger. Betty Jean Clemmer leaves her luck in "getting by" to anyone who can do it! To Carolyn Cline, Margie Penland bequeaths her love for the boys in uniform. "Molly" Walton leaves her table at the Soda Shoppe at lunch to Betty Jane Rowe. To Thad Johnson, John Tate wills his ability as a dancer. Dorothy Miller wills her art in the use of "make-up" to Betty Jean Rudisill. Mildred Newton wills her love for making book reports to Judy Stevenson. Joyce Madaris leaves her place in the cafeteria to Peggy Peeler.

Mary Arney bequeaths her locker to Agnes Wells. Irene Clontz leaves her seat in the auditorium to Inez Duncan. Doris Busby wills her blush to Bettie Weaver in hopes that her ears won't turn every color of the rainbow when a boy speaks to her! Bonnie Sue Jarvis wills her ability as a pianist to anyone talented along this line. Billy Deitz leaves his desire to get to school on time to Claude Day. Cecil Abce leaves his girlish manner to C. W. Crair. Martha Cray, wills her attraction to blondes to Carolyn Balch. John Henry Ford leaves his love for the fairer sex to Ben Robinson. Edith Barger leaves her quiet but pleasing manner to Joan Taylor. To Patsy Ford, Carol Drum bestows her ability to get her name in the gossip column of the "Twig." Bobbie Yount leaves her knack of making good grades to Peggy Jean White. Mary Bess Tilley bequeaths the ability of having lots of friends to Buddy Samples. Betty Marie Yoder wills her mathematical mind to Dolan Huffman. The stateliness of Mildred Sigmon is left to Suzanne Kramer. Millie Jean Starnes' vivaciousness is bestowed upon Margaret Jones. The old notebook of Evelyn Robertson is left to Maxine Lockhart. Ruby Peeler's love for Shorthand goes to Betty Sue Lael. Marguerite Cline wills her golden silence to Mary F. Bolick.

The Harlequin glasses of Mimi Jean Correll go to Betty R. Gamble. Hilda Robbins will leave her pleasant manner to Peggy Bost. Wanda Woodie leaves her Shorthand book to anyone who wants it! Sara Virginia Witherspoon's timidity goes to the boldest rising Junior! The dependability of Helen Sigmon goes to Peggy Cook. Rheba Starr's carefree giggle goes to Martha Candler. To Edward Cook, Bill Sigmon leaves his love for Algebra. To Dorothy Brittain goes Doris Teague's seniority air. Marjorie Turner's secret method of fixing her hair so well goes to Jones Herman.

The friendly ways of Marjorie Walls are bestowed upon Martha J. Brown. Bob Roseman leaves his nickname "Fish-Eye" to any poor sucker who will have it! Raldo Sharpe wills his long ride to school to Gene Lail. Gwyn Sigmon bestows his love for girls to Buddy Broyles. Bill Sherrill leaves his intelligence to one of the rising Junior Morons. Wade Phillips bequeaths his spelling book to Ruth Fisher. John Ray Poovey leaves his chair in the Library to Robert Cansler. Jack Shook wills his small quiet voice to Joe Cater. Clyde Smith leaves his cheerful nature to Blake Honeycutt. Alvin Starr leaves his wad of chewing gum on the bottom of his D. O. chair to the boy sitting there next year. Bill Stephens bestows to Conway Fulbright his ability to trip the light fantastic. Howard Wright leaves his poker face to Benny Lafone. Nolan Yount wills his love for sleeping in study halls to A. L. Lutz. Carroll Rhyne wants Edwin Kenworthy to have his left-over typing paper. Frank Annas leaves all his failures to Ralph Kirby. Allie Mae Young leaves her popularity with out-of-town boys to Nina Burns. Hazel Seabock leaves her much admired eyes to Bonnie Bynum. Mary E. McRee leaves her curly locks to Pauline Byrd. Doris Propst will give Marjorie Carvey her secret reducing diet which she has used so frequently. Lillian Seabock will leave her charming way with the lads to Martha Cline. Wilda Ellis bestows her knowledge of Hickory on Ruth Connell. Stanley Ammons leaves his admiration for the Democratic Party to J. W. Laney. Agnes Hollar wills her soft voice to Betty Crump. Mildred Bedington leaves her individuality to Edna Deal. Edna Mae Walker leaves her chair in the auditorium to the first one who gets there next year. Frances McGuire bequeaths her large eyes to Millie Dellinger. Pansy Zimmerman wills her golden voice and sweet smile to Christine DeRhodes. Betty Newton wills her graceful figure to Beulah Durham. Helen Mozeley leaves her innocent and intelligent expression to Ruth Fisher. Dorothy Killian leaves her happy-go-lucky ways to Margie Fox. Mary Barker wants Jeanne Hutton to fill her place in the basketball squad. Betty Jo Yoder leaves her fondness for riding to Jeanette Franklin. Doris L. Miller leaves her problem of getting gas for driving to school to Ada Jane Geitner. Clara Palmer wills her talkative nature to Virginia Cabbard. Maxine Bollinger leaves her sweet temper to Ruth Gregory. Nancy Moss leaves her fondness of speaking only when spoken to to Joan Criffin. Meriam Self wills her quiet manner to anyone that will deserve it. Doris E. Miller bestows upon Peggy J. Tallant her honor roll grades. Betty Boyd leaves her devotion for Home Economics to Marie Hefner.

Marjorie Owens wills her love for eating in study hall to Olga Henkel. Emma Kate Yount does hereby will and bequeath her love for athletics to Joyce Howard. ## SHELBY VS. HICKORY (There)

Hickory High School's Red Tornadoes, minus their 1943 Coach, Bill Scarborough, and lack of experience, lost to the strong Shelby High Lions, in Shelby at 8 P.M., Friday, September 22.

After the Lions had scored in each of the first three quarters, the Tornadoes started a drive toward the Lions' goal. Jackson hurled a 40-yard pass to wingback Bridgeman, who ran 10 yards for the score.

The Shelby lads scored in each of the first three quarters. These scores being paced by the running and passing of Reynolds and Alan. Weir and Spangler stood out in the line for Shelby.

For Hickory, Setzer, Beard, and Craig stood out in the line with Jackson's passing and Bridgeman's running pacing the way in the backfield.

MARION VS. HICKORY (There)

The Hickory High School Red Tornadoes suffered their second defeat of the season, October 1, at the hands of the Marion Rippers. Neither team made any progress in the first half. But on the opening play of the second half Marion scored on a pass. Later in the same quarter Marion scored again on a pass.

Hickory High made their only tally in the fourth quarter when Hewat plunged across from the two-yard line after the team had driven 75 yards. Then Helton converted the extra point by dropkicking. Marion then scored again on a pass.

Minutes before the game ended Marion blocked a punt and scored again.

For Marion Norman, Norton, Goode, Biggerstaff and R. Toney showed up best.

For the Tornadoes Tate, Jackson, B. Craig, Bridgeman, and Setzer showed up best although the whole team played well.

STATESVILLE VS. HICKORY (Here)

The Tornadoes dropped their third successive game on October 6, to the strong Statesville eleven. The strong Statesville squad was able to score only 13 points on the small but scrappy Tornado squad. The Tornadoes were gradually getting experience and they really gave the Greyhounds a fit with their fine and brilliant defensive playing.

Fanjoy stood out for the Statesville team in the backfield with Captain Taylor taking the spotlight in the line. For Hickory, the entire team stood out defensively. Jackson, Craig, and Bridgeman showed up well on offense.

LENOIR VS HICKORY (Here)

The improving Tornadoes bowed to one of their greatest rivals, Lenoir, Friday, October 13.

This victory gave the Bearcats their first victory over the Tornadoes in seventeen years but the Bearcats had to put on one of their best performances of the year to down the fighting Tornadoes.

In the second quarter, Hass, the star quarterback of the Lenoir eleven, broke through the right side of the Tornado line and scored standing up on a 22-yard run. Hass also converted the extra point. The entire Hickory eleven stood out well. Harry Winkler, rugged tackle, and Charles Hass stood out for the Lenoir eleven.

FOREST CITY VS. HICKORY (There)

On Friday afternoon October 20, the Red Tornadoes finally came into the winning column by beating Forest City 7-0.

It was a hard fought game all through the first half. Hickory finally made the only score of the game when Jackson hurled a thirty yard pass to hit Bud Craig, stealer right end who caught it on the ten and ran it across. John Tate made the extra point when he took a pass from Bill Helton on the two and ran it across.

Jackson, Bridgeman, Dowda, and Setzer were best for the Tornadoes while all the team played a bang up game.

NEWTON VS. HICKORY (Here)

The Tornadoes turned in their finest performance of the year on October 27, when they downed the fighting Red Devils of Newton and Conover. In the second quarter

Jackson swept the left side of the Newton line for 20 yards to score standing up. The game was nip and tuck the rest of the way, with both teams continually threatening to score. During the final minutes of the game, the Devils came into the shadow of the Hickory goal post but the impregnable line of the Tornadoes held like a rock wall until the final whistle. Hickory's line put on their best performance of the year. Setzer, Beard, and Burns were continually breaking through the Devils' line and downing the backs in their tracks. Coley and Mozeley showed up best for the Devils.

HICKORY VS. LINCOLNTON (Here)

The Lincolnton-Hickory game proved to be one of the most exciting of the season.

The Red Tornadoes' line was impregnable throughout the whole game. Brown, Beard, Miller, Setzer, and Burns paced Hickory's valiant linemen by continually stopping the Wolves for hardly any gain.

The excitement ran high when Brown, leftend of the Tornadoes, caught a pass thrown by Jackson and ran it to the ten-yard stripe only to be stopped without further gain.

In the opening play of the second half the ball was left on the ground behind the goal line which was covered by Lincolnton for the first touchdown of the game. Late in the fourth quarter, Hudspeth, Lincolnton back, ran 20 yards for another Wolf tally.

Hickory's entire line showed up well along with backfieldmen Jackson, Craig, Bridgeman, and Tate.

For the Wolves Elmore, burly center, and Hudspeth, back, were the best.

HICKORY VS. CHINA GROVE (Here)

The Tornadoes won their last game and their third of the year in a non-conference tilt with China Grove.

Hickory started their second and third team, with the first string men entering the game a few minutes later. The first team sparked by Jackson, Tate, and Craig marched to a touchdown without too much difficulty.

Coach Kanupp substituted accordingly throughout the entire game.

Hickory scored in the second quarter with Tate going over for the touchdown. Helton dropkicked the extra point.

Setzer, Beard, and Burns stood out in the line with Jackson and Craig taking the spotlight in the backfield.

Herrin and Corringer were best for the China Grove eleven.

MORGANTON VS. HICKORY (There)

The Tornadoes ran into their worst defeat of the season on November 11, when the Morganton Wildcats thundered over them 40-2. The Wildcats were really in high gear that night scoring five touchdowns in the first half and one in the last half. Hickory got their only points of the game when D. Williams, standing in his own end zone, kicked the ball straight up and covered it as it came down giving the Tornadoes a safety. In the second half the Tornadoes settled down and played a bang up ball game yielding but one touchdown. Williams, Lane, and Darby stood out for the Wildcats with Beard, Setzer, Wilson, and Dub Craig pacing the Tornadoes.

KINGS MOUNTAIN VS. HICKORY (There)

Hickory made a gallant bid for their last game but fell before the Kings Mountain gridders 7-6. The Tornadoes' running was greatly hindered by the thick mud which covered the field like a blanket of snow. Kings Mountain scored early in the first period on a pass from H. Black to J. Black in the end zone. Cloninger plunged through the line for the extra point. There was much discussion on whether Cloninger really made the extra point or not, but it was finally decided in Cloninger's favor. Late in the fourth period, Jackson plunged over for the Tornadoes from the five-yard stripe. Jackson made a valiant try for the extra point but was stopped on the six-inch line. The Tornadoes were paced by their outstanding linemen Setzer, Beard, and Burns with Jackson and Craig taking the spotlight in the backfield. Kings Mountain was paced by Cloninger, Black, and Cunnels.

Although the Tornadoes lost most of their games this season they played some very good football, so hats off to the 1944 Red Tornadoes!

LENOIR RHYNE COLLEGE

(Co-educational)

HICKORY, N. C.

Hickory High School has in the past coöperated in a very fine spirit with Lenoir Rhyne College. The College invites a continuation of this coöperation.

Hickory with her efficient school system possesses in a high degree all of that which goes to make for culture and refinement in education.

Lenoir Rhyne College assures you a continuance of that fine cultural atmosphere.

The college offers courses leading to the degrees of A.B., B.S. in Liberal Arts Courses, Music Courses, Teachers Training Courses, and Commercial Courses.

Let your next step be Lenoir Rhyne College.
